

Yoga & Kirtan

with Neve & PranaMuktiBhakti

Sattvic Space and Neve are honored to host PranaMuktiBhakti on March 31st (Neve's Birthday) which is a Friday evening.

We will have a yoga class starting at 7:00 p.m. with PranaMuktiBhakti and afterwards we will continue with Kirtan. One hour of yoga postures and one hour of singing mantras. Two hours of PranaMuktiBhakti! The class is a love donation.

We suggest $10+ but we do not want anyone to feel excluded due to a lack of funds. Pay as you feel led. We hope to see you there to share in yoga and song. Love.

Sattvic Space is a volunteer built and supported yoga & wellness center built by the community for the community. The center is made possible through donations and the generosity of the community.

Cost: $10+ suggested donation ♥
